

Put the roof cover gently on the construction. Then attach it to the roof frame using elastic rubbers with ball. The elastic rubbers should be installed alternately right - left and front and back.

